

Discovered by accident... but it works!

The One Weird Side Effect of This Pain Pill is All Day Energy

Doctor developed painkiller not only squelches pain... it makes your energy levels soar. “We can’t keep enough on the shelves,” say drug store owners.

Imagine a pill that not only chases away sore joints and achy muscles... it also catapults your energy levels back to those of a 30 year old, and does it safely without drugs.

There’s no need to imagine. A world-renowned doctor has developed a new natural pain-relieving pill. It’s been shown to reverse the root cause of pain.

After extensive testing, millions of Americans are now desperate to try it. Getting your hands on this medical miracle isn’t going to be easy. Big Pharma is doing everything they can to stop shipments of this highly anticipated pain relief pill. Because it isn’t a drug. It’s something completely different.

The makers of this new pill have already doubled their production efforts. They’re cranking up to meet the growing demand from consumers and drug store owners.

The pill, made for men and women over 50, was released early last month. Yet, in spite of the pharmaceutical industry’s efforts to keep it from the public, sales have already exceeded expectations.

World Famous Cancer Doctor Stumbles onto Shocking Pain Fix

This new pill, named Enzoplex, attacks the root cause of your joint and muscle pain... inflammation. And when systemic inflammation levels in your body are under control, your energy levels soar!

Initial users took it for pain. But they also found themselves running up and down stairs like they used to in the prime of their life.

The strange part of the story is this: When Dr. Hans Nieper discovered this breakthrough, he wasn’t looking for a painkiller. He was looking for something to help cancer patients overcome low energy. He discovered the pain-fighting power by mistake.

Here are the facts: If you’re over 50, studies show you probably have an enzyme deficiency. That’s why spicy foods you used to love now leave you feeling like there’s a fire in your gut. Injuries take two or three times longer to heal. Your thinking and memory feel foggy. Your knees, back, hips and other joints constantly ache. And it feels like your “energy tank” is always on empty.

Enzymes are what make everything work in your body. You can’t digest your food without enzymes. You can’t heal from injuries. You can’t fight off a cold or illness. Your body can’t build new heart, brain, skin, bone or muscle tissue cells without enzymes.

Enzoplex helps replace the enzymes you used to have when you were younger so you can enjoy life pain free with tons of energy.

A Pain Free Life And “Get Up And Go” Energy

And that is why Big Pharma doesn’t want you to have access to this amazing new formula. Since Enzoplex is a natural pill, drug companies can’t patent it and make the obscene profits they’re used to.

Plus, they want to keep you sick. Because if you’re over 50 and healthy... and you’re pain free with the energy of a 30 year old... you won’t buy their expensive prescription pills. You also won’t be subjected to all the nasty side effects that come from taking their drugs. THAT is the very reason Big Pharma is trying to have Enzoplex pulled from the shelves.

How It Works

One of the many active ingredients in Enzoplex is a safe and highly effective natural enzyme that controls inflammation and pain. It has been used successfully for decades in Europe and Asia for its anti-inflammation benefits, and its ability to support healthy energy levels.

Enzoplex* is the first product of its kind to also include the amazing pain-killing enzyme that has been so successful in Germany and Asia. It re-ignites every cell in your body with a potent supply of enzymes and powerful herbal compounds that work better when combined, making them synergistic.

Dr. Hans Nieper is best known for his treatments of cancer and multiple sclerosis, although his foundational work with substances that he believed would increase the availability of minerals to the body, what he called “mineral transporters.” He served as Director for the Department of Medicine at Silbersee Hospital in Hanover and “was known for his expertise in applying the advanced principles of physics to medical concepts.

Test subjects report being “PAIN FREE... and HAVING MORE ENERGY, FOCUS and DRIVE!” It’s almost if your body “resets itself” to feel like it did in the prime of your life.
