ST. LOUIS • A team of local physicians are part of a medical clinic in Creve Coeur, specializing in only one unique, niche area—men's sexual performance.

Erectile dysfunction and premature ejaculation have long been a problem for millions of men nationwide. In spite of the popularity of recent medications such as Viagra, Levitra and Cialis, many men either are not helped by these medications or cannot take them due to medical conditions and adverse side effects.

The Cambridge Clinic employs several local physicians including Dr. Gerald Meyers and Dr. George Alexander, both longtime local surgeons in St. Louis. "We successfully help almost every patient we see here," according to Dr. Meyers, "and we've treated men from as young as twenty-one to as old as eighty-nine. Men with diabetes, heart conditions, bypass surgery, high blood pressure, prostate problems and surgery, you name it and we've treated them. Regardless of age or medical condition, our results everyday are amazing."

All medications are safe and no surgery is involved. "Our doctors can adjust the dosage for a man's performance to 45-minutes, an hour, 90-minutes or longer," according to Jason Hendricks, Clinic Director, "and we offer a simple guarantee: 'If you don't respond to our medication on the first visit, it's free.'"

With that guarantee, local patients have nothing to lose. Cambridge books appointments far in advance but occasionally can accommodate some-one quickly. Saturday appointments are also available. Cambridge assures patients of utmost privacy and professionalism with private waiting rooms and an all-male staff. Further information is available by calling (314) 567-4500.
